

Expanding the Toolkit for Equity Assessment: State-of-the-Art Methods for Federal Agencies

Friday, November 19, 2021, 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. EST

- 11:00 a.m. Welcome remarks
- Sarah Rosen Wartell, President, Urban Institute
- 11:05 a.m. A Whole-of-Government Equity Agenda
- K. Sabeel Rahman, Senior Counselor, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget
 - Sarah Rosen Wartell, President, Urban Institute
- 11:25 a.m. Creating More Equitable Outcomes through Policy Design
- Shena Ashley, Vice President for Nonprofits and Philanthropy, Urban Institute
 - Nick Hart, President, Data Foundation
 - Michael McAfee, President and Chief Executive Officer, PolicyLink
- 12:00 p.m. Concurrent breakout tracks
- Simulating Program or Policy Effects for Federal Poverty Prevention Programs
 - Privacy-Preserving Technologies for Expanded Administrative Data Use and Sharing
 - Leveraging Data without Increasing Burdens
 - Examining Algorithm-Based Decisionmaking Tools for Bias
- 1:20 p.m. Break
- 1:30 p.m. Agency Perspectives on Executing the Executive Order
- Lauren Damme, Deputy Director in the Chief Evaluation Office, US Department of Labor
 - Natalie Evans Harris, Senior Advisor for Delivery (Tech and Data), US Department of Commerce
 - Bhavya Mohan, Fellow, Office of Evaluation Sciences, US General Services Administration
 - Daniel Morgan, Chief Data Officer, US Department of Transportation
 - Steven Brown, Senior Research Associate, and Associate Director, Racial Equity Analytics Lab, Urban Institute (moderator)
- 2:00 p.m. Event concludes